

ALBANY ISPY

eerie
ALBANY

1
Stately ladies stare ahead and dream of distant oysters.

2
A metal demon, clinging to the edge of an old tower, 'read' all over.

3
A Pearl of Wisdom: This building hosted the first basketball game in New York State in 1892.

4
The Eagle-eyed Public can spot these felines.

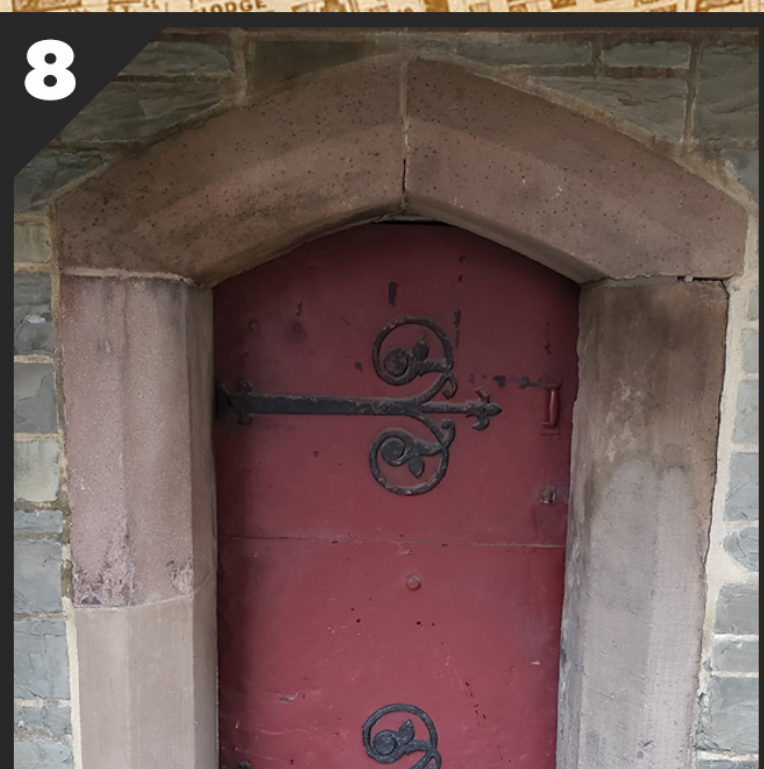

5
We'd like to Lodge a complaint! Despite its public facing name, this former Lodge is not on Lodge Street.

6
This grotesque goblin leers outside of one of Richardson's finest.

7
The finest fall treats can be found in this favored shop.

8
Lord Howe's final resting place, far from his native England.

9
These lions once stood guard for travelers, though the trains whistle no longer.

Where this moon shines, it's always Green.

Grab a pint, and look "ever upward" to catch this lovely laurel.

Check in, if you dare. These devils hover high above.

YOUR ANSWERS

1 _____	5 _____	9 _____
2 _____	6 _____	10 _____
3 _____	7 _____	11 _____
4 _____	8 _____	12 _____

YOUR BOUNDARIES

HAVING TROUBLE?
LOOK OUT FOR DAILY BONUS CLUES ON SPONSOR FACEBOOK PAGES:
ALBANYARCHIVES | ALBANYBID | ALBANYCVB

EMAIL YOUR COMPLETED ANSWER SHEET AND PHOTOS
OF A TEAM MEMBER AT EACH LOCATION TO
INFO@DOWNTOWNALBANY.ORG
BY 5:00 PM ON NOVEMBER 2

MORE INFO & RULES: DOWNTOWNALBANY.ORG/ISPY

BROUGHT TO YOU BY YOUR FRIENDLY NEIGHBORS AT:

