ALBANY

SUNY Research Building 35 State Street

Stately ladies stare ahead and dream of distant oysters.

SUNY Plaza (Former D&H Building) 353 Broadway

A metal demon, clinging to the edge of an old tower, 'read' all over.

Kenmore Apartments (Former YMCA) 76 N. Pearl Street

A Pearl of Wisdom: This building hosted the first basketball game in New York State in 1892.

Public House 42 42 Eagle Street

The Eagle-eyed Public can spot these felines.

Aeon Nexus (Former Albany Lodge 49) 138 State Street

We'd like to Lodge a complaint! Despite its public facing name, this former Lodge is not on Lodge Street.

Albany City Hall 24 Eagle Street

This grotesque goblin leers outside of one of Richardson's finest.

Cider Belly Doughnuts 25 N. Pearl Street

The finest fall treats can be found in this favored shop.

8

St. Peter's Church 107 State Street

Lord Howe's final resting place, far from his native England.

Kiernan Plaza (Former Union Station) 575 Broadway

These lions once stood guard for travelers, though the trains whistle no longer.

by Cara Hanley
Green-Hudson Garage
45 Hudson Avenue

Where this moon shines, it's always Green.

11

The Excelsior Pub
54 Philip Street

Grab a pint, and look “ever upward” to catch this lovely laurel.

12

Fairfield Inn & Suites
74 State Street

Check in, if you dare. These devils hover high above.
